FIRST READING: Rev 7: 2-4, 9-14

I saw an immense crowd, beyond hope of counting, of people from every nation, race , tribe and language.

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel. After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.' One of the elders then spoke and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The Word of the Lord.

REDISCOVERING THE MASS - A TALK BY CHRISTOPHER CARSTENS

We are delighted to welcome Christopher Carstens, who has served since 1998 as Director of the Office for Sacred Worship in the Diocese of La Crosse, Wisconsin, and who now also directs Adoremus: Society for the Renewal of the Sacred Liturgy. Drawing on the spiritual meaning behind the signs, words and actions of the liturgy, Chris will show how every part of the Mass, from entering the church doors to the final Dismissal, can become a real encounter with Christ. He will explain the "sacramental principle" that brings the liturgy to life, how our prayers at Mass become a true conversation with God (and why silence is essential to it), how to offer Christ our hearts at the Offertory, how to enter into the Eucharistic Prayer as the high point of our participation in His saving work, and what disposition we need to receive Holy Communion most fruitfully. All are warmly invited to come and discover the Mass as a source of peace and refreshment for the soul. 18 November, 7pm at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish.

ALL SOULS INTENTIONS

November is the month of the Holy Souls. This is an opportunity to pray for the souls of our departed loved ones. During November, daily Mass is offered for the Holy Souls mentioned on the special November envelopes. Please find the Mass offering envelopes on the table in the foyer and hand them to Fr Christian or to an acolyte during November.

ARCHBISHOP'S CHRISTMAS APPEAL FOR LIFELINK

Please collect a copy of the Archbishop's Appeal Letter after Mass this weekend. Next weekend, 7/8 November, will be a special collection. We invite you to give generously to support the valuable work of the Church's welfare agencies in this Archdiocese. You may choose to mail your gift in the reply-paid envelope provided OR return your envelope and donation for a Special Collection which will be held at Masses next weekend. You may also donate (securely) online at www.LifeLink.com.au

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 23: 1-6

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R.

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R.

3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord?
and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

SECOND READING:

1 Jn 3: 1-3

We shall see God as he really is.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Cf. Mt 11: 28

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come to me all you that labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING:

Mt 5: 1-12

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
